

♥ A Little Bit of Lion-love Goes a Long Way! ♥

Aslan and two lionesses arrived from the Catskill Game Farm in New York just before Christmas 2006. With the closure of the animal park, the auctioning off of 950 animals made east coast and national headlines. Animal-welfare activists were concerned that some of the animals would wind up at canned hunting operations where hunters pay to shoot fenced-in animals. Many groups intervened and negotiated placement of animals in sanctuaries, ensuring a safer fate. It is described as one of the largest animal rescues of its type.

The lions arrived with several scars on their faces and hindquarters – a haunting reminder of their previous confinement. But given their huge hearts and some TLC, they have healed both emotionally and physically.

Showing an animal in need that you care is an amazing gift. This gift of compassion can be shared with a loved one this Valentine's Day. Please make a $25 "Lion-love" donation and we will send you or a loved one a Lion-love Valentine greeting card. This year's Valentine includes a full-color photo of Aslan and Shanti Deva. The inside message tells the recipient that a donation was made with love in their honor.

Orders must be received by February 7th to guarantee delivery by February 14th.
