Rescued Tiger at The Wildcat Sanctuary in Minnesota Predicts Winner of Sunday's Big Football Game

Sandstone, Minnesota – 2-year-old rescued tiger Dash has boldly given his prediction for the winner of the upcoming big football game on Sunday. After careful contemplation as he pondered two colorfully decorated pieces of plywood displaying the team names, Dash chose the Kansas City Chief's, proclaiming that team will be the winner. He then proceeded to tear apart the Philadelphia Eagles board, seeming to indicate that Kansas City would not only win but destroy Philadelphia.

We eagerly await the outcome of the game on Sunday to find out if the tiger Dash has accurately predicted the winner again like he did as a cub in 2021 when Tampa Bay won the big game!
